ORCHESTRAL SUGGESTIONS

FIRST VIOLIN

This part in most cases is a duplicate of the melody or soprano part of the hymn. Experienced players, who play fluently in the second and third positions, may play the part as if written an octave higher (8 vo.) which will add brilliancy to the general effect. This part may also be used for Oboe, C clarinet or C cornet.

SECOND VIOLIN

This part is either a duplicate of the alto part, or when double stops are used, a combination of alto and tenor. Sometimes an accompaniment figure of broken chords is used. Only experienced players should attempt to play double stops, as it is absolutely essential that all play in strict tune. Less experienced players should play "divisi" that is, divided into two sections, one playing the upper and one the lower part.

VIOLA

This beautiful instrument is a very important component of the string quartet and should be used wherever at all available. It takes the tenor part in the quartet proper, but where the string bass enters, thus turning the quartet into a quintet, a new part has often been supplied for the viola. It is written in the alto clef, with middle C on the third line. As violinists of even moderate ability can master this beautiful instrument in a short time, every effort should be put forth by the ambitious orchestra leader to take up the study of the viola. As its tone resembles somewhat that of the French Horn, this part has often been duplicated, to give the peculiar coloring to the orchestra which only the French Horns can supply. When independent parts occur they should be played more prominently than where only accompaniment figures are to be performed.

CELLO

The cello is a free lance. Sometimes it follows the bass part literally, again it follows the tenor, and still again it plays an octave lower in unison with the soprano. And at other times an independent obligato part has been considered more effective. Only an experienced cellist should attempt the cello part; a second cellist, or a less experienced one, should play the lower or bass part.

BASS

The bass follows the vocal bass part as far as the harmonic basis is concerned. In many cases the rhythm of the vocal parts has not been adhered to in order that the general effect might be more sustained rather than the staccato effect inseparable from rapid passages when played on this instrument.

FLUTE

The flute is generally a duplicate of the soprano part in the upper octave. In many instances, especially in the more brilliant numbers, interesting chord figurations, scale passages and trills are included in order to enhance the general effectiveness of this instrument. Beginners may play the first violin part an octave higher than written.

FIRST AND SECOND CLARINET

This part generally forms a second or an alto to the flute part, although for the sake of interest the two parts sometimes are interchanged. In some cases an independent part consisting of melodic variations and accompaniment chord and arpeggio figures has been supplied to interest advanced performers. Beginners or second clarinet players may play from first or second cornet parts. Use care always to note first before playing, whether the part is written for B flat or for A clarinet. Most organs and pianos are now tuned to international pitch, so be sure that your clarinet is a "low" pitch instrument. It is difficult to play a high pitch instrument in tune, although it can be approached by drawing out the mouthpiece about one-half inch (approximately). A C clarinet should play from the first violin part.

FIRST AND SECOND CORNET

These parts are written upon the same staff and follow in general the soprano and alto parts respectively. Be sure, before playing, to note whether the part is written for B flat or for A cornet. Most modern cornets are provided with a quick change slide to A. Ascertain also if your instrument is in tune with the organ or piano. While the parts are written full, it sometimes adds to the general effect to rest during the verses and softer passages, and then play the choruses, refrains and louder passages, thus adding the very desirable quality of contrast — high-light and shadow. Two cornets are amply sufficient to balance a dozen violins.

THE TROMBONE

The trombone is the cello of the brass instruments, though not nearly so nimble of speech, and much more grave and solemn of tone, especially in the lower register. It is of admirable effect, when sparingly used, in the softer passages. Too much of the trombone tone is a grave fault in the orchestra as this instrument is unusually prominent and cannot be too carefully played. The two clefs are used so that, in the absence of a trombone, the treble part may be played by a Bb baritone reading the same as a Bb cornet.

FRENCH HORNS

These instruments when properly used, will serve to add fine mellow coloring to the lower register of the harmony. They are generally employed to duplicate the tenor and bass parts and will be found at their best when sustaining long notes, thus giving firmness and resonance to the harmony, as no other instruments. They should be employed wherever available as their use will enhance the effectiveness of the orchestra very much without disturbing in the slightest the general balance of tone. Great care has been taken in these arrangements to make all the horn parts easily playable. They should be used in pairs to bring out their best effects, but when only one is available, the upper part should always be used, as the lower one is often in unison with the trombone.

PLACING THE ORCHESTRA

Orchestras are usually seated in the form of a half circle, the higher strings (1st violins) in the middle and nearest the director, the lower strings (2nd violins, violas, cellos and basses) to the left of the director as he stands facing the platform, the wood wind (flutes, clarinets, etc.) next the director on the right, then the brass (cornets, horns, trombone) still farther to the right. This order is the one usually followed as it gives all an equal chance to see the director.

Undue prominence of any one instrument is generally (unless a solo part) an evidence of bad taste on the part of the player. In an orchestra, the clarinets, cornets and trombone should strive to subdue and mellow their tone in order that balance and orchestral blending may be possible. One trombone will balance a dozen violins.

"ETERNAL PRAISE" is orchestrated for 14 different instruments. For list and prices, see title page

FOREWORD

THE thought, skill and painstaking care that enter into any kind of effort reveal themselves in the result achieved. It is not necessary to say of a painting or a sculpture that it has taken skill, time and ability to produce it. A view of the finished work of art is its own evidence. Instead, therefore, of writing eulogies of the editors and compilers whose combined effort this book represents, we bid you turn to its musical pages. They have ability to speak for themselves and to sing their own way into your heart. You will be impressed with their beauty, fervor, strength, reverence and devotion. We take pleasure in introducing you at once to Eternal Praise.

2. Glad-ly I read, "Who-so-ev-er may Come to the fountain of life to - day;"

Yes, I'm so hap-py to know and say, "Je - sus in-clud - ed me too."
 But when I read it I al-ways say, "Je - sus in-clud - ed me too."
 But I am sure while they're call-ing home, Je - sus in-clud - ed me too.
 For when He said, "Who-so-ev - er will," Je - sus in-clud - ed me too.

1. Where is my wand'ring boy to-night—The boy of my ten-d'rest care,
2. Once he was pure as morn-ing dew, As he knelt at his moth-er's knee;
3. O could I see you now, my boy, As fair as in old - en time,
4. Go for my wand'ring boy to-night; Go search for him where you will;

The boy that was once my joy and light, The child of my love and prayer?
No face was so bright, no heart more true, And none was so sweet as he.
When prat-tle and smile made home a joy, And life was a mer - ry chimel
But bring him to me with all his blight, And tell him I love him still.

CHORUS. Not too fast.

O where is my boy to - night? O where is my boy to - night?

My heart o'er-flows, for I love him he knows; O where is my boy to - night?

1. Can a boy forget his mother's prayer, When he has wandered, God knows where?
2. Can a boy for-get his moth-er's face, Whose heart was kind and filled with grace?
3. Can a boy for-get his moth-er's door, From which he wandered years be-fore?
4. Can a boy for-get that she is dead, Tho' many years have passed and fled?

It's down the path of death and shame, But mother's prayers are heard the same!
 Her lov-ing voice it ech-oes sweet; She waits, she longs her boy to meet!
 With tears and sighs she said, "Good-bye, Meet me, my boy, be-yond the sky!"
 Those tears, that prayer, that sweet "Good-bye;" She waits to welcome thee on high!

CHORUS.

Come back, my boy, come back, I say, And walk now in thy mother's way!

Christ rose from depths of earth;
On thee, our Lord victorious,
The Spirit sent from Heaven;
And thus on thee, most glorious,
A triple light was given.

3 To-day on weary nations
The heavenly manna falls;
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls,
Where gospel light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living water flowing
With soul-refreshing streams.

O what peace we oft - en for - feit, O what need-less pain we bear,

Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

3 Are we weak and heavy-laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?—
Precious Savior, still our refuge,—
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
In His arms He'll take and shield thee,
Thou wilt find a solace there.

No. 289. Stand Up for Jesus.

- 1 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
 Ye soldiers of the cross;
 Lift high His royal banner,
 It must not suffer loss:
 From victory unto victory
 His army shall He lead,
 Till every foe is vanquished
 And Christ is Lord indeed.
- 2 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
 The trumpet call obey;
 Forth to the mighty conflict,
 In this His glorious day:
 "Ye that are men, now serve Him,"
 Against unnumbered foes;
 Your courage rise with danger,
 And strength to strength oppose.

- 3 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
 Stand in His strength alone;
 The arm of flesh will fail you;
 Ye dare not trust your own:
 Put on the gospel armor,
 Each piece put on with prayer;
 Where duty calls, or danger,
 Be never wanting there.
- 4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
 The strife will not be long;
 This day the noise of battle,
 The next the victor's song:
 To him that overcometh,
 A crown of life shall be;
 He with the King of glory
 Shall reign eternally.

Sweet Hour of Prayer.

W. W. Walford.

Wm. B. Bradbury.

1. Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer, That calls me from a world of care,

And bids me, at my Father's throne, Make all my wants and wishes known!
D.S.—And oft escaped the tempter's snare, By thy return, sweet hour of prayer.

In seasons of distress and grief, My soul has often found relief,

2 Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer,
The joys I feel, the bliss I share,
Of those whose anxious spirits burn
With strong desires for thy return!
With such I hasten to the place
Where God, my Savior, shows His face,
And gladly take my station there,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.

3 Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer,
Thy wings shall my petition bear
To Him, whose truth and faithfulness
Engage the waiting soul to bless:
And since He bids me seek His face,
Believe His word, and trust His grace,
I'll cast on Him my every care,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.

4. O beau-ti-ful for pa-tri-ot dream That sees be-yond the years

For pur-ple mountain maj-es-ties A-bove the fruit-ed plain!
 A thor-ough-fare for free-dom beat A-cross the wil-der-ness!
 Who more than self their coun-try loved, And mer-cy more than life!
 Thine al-a-bas-ter cit-ies gleam, Undimmed by hu-man tears!

A-mer-i-cal A-mer-i-cal God shed His grace on thee,
 A-mer-i-cal A-mer-i-cal God mend thine ev-'ry flaw,
 A-mer-i-cal A-mer-i-cal May God thy gold re-fine,
 A-mer-i-cal A-mer-i-cal God shed His grace on thee,

And crown thy good with broth-er-hood From sea to shin-ing sea!
 Con-firm thy soul in self-con-trol, Thy lib-er-ty in law!
 Till all suc-cess be no-ble-ness, And ev-'ry gain di-vine!
 And crown thy good with broth-er-hood From sea to shin-ing sea!

SELECTIONS FROM THE SCRIPTURES

No. 321

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.

Serve the Lord with gladness:
Come before his presence with singing.
Know ye that the Lord he is God;
It is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves.

We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
and into his courts with praise:

Be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

For the Lord is good;
His mercy is everlasting,
And his truth endureth to all generations.

No. 322

Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget
not all his benefits:

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies;
Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

The Lord is merciful and gracious; slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

As far as the east is from the west,
so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

Like as a father pitieth his children,
so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.

As for man, his days are as grass:
as a flower of the field, so he flour-isheth.

For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children.

Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

Bless ye the LORD, all ye his hosts;
ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

Bless the Lord, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless the Lord, O my soul.

No. 323

Seek ye the LORD while he may be found; call ye upon him while he is near.

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

For whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the LORD Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Whosoever believeth on him is not condemned, whosoever believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

Behold, I stand at the door and knock;
if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him, and he with me.

Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

Believe on the LORD Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.

SELECTIONS FROM THE SCRIPTURES

No. 324

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

Blessed art thou, O Lord: teach me thy statutes.

With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day.

Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.

No. 325

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

No. 326

O sing unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth.

Sing unto the Lord, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

Declare his glory among the heathen his wonders among all people.

For the Lord is great, and greatly to be praised:

He is to be feared above all gods.

For all the gods of the nations are idols: But the LORD made the heavens.

Honour and majesty are before him: Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people,

Give unto the Lord glory and strength.

Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name:

Bring an offering, and come into his courts.

O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

Say among the heathen that the Lord reigneth:

The world also shall be established that it shall not be moved:

He shall judge the people righteously. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;

Let the sea roar and the fulness thereof.

Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein:

Then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the Lord:

For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth:

He shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

SELECTIONS FROM THE SCRIPTURES

No. 327

Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.

Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.

I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

The meek shall inherit the earth, and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him.

No. 328

Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good.

Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another;

Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the LORD;

Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.

Bless them which persecute you; bless, and curse not.

Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

Be of the same mind one toward another.

Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate.

Be not wise in your own conceits. Recompense to no man evil for evil.

Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath:

For it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the LORD.

Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink:

For in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

No. 329

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by him,

And without him was not anything made that was made.

In him was life, and the life was the light of men.

And the light shineth in the darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not.

That was the true light,

Which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

He was in the world and the world was made by him,

And the world knew him not.

He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

But as many as received him to them gave he power to become the sons of God,

Even to them that believe on his name.

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us —

And we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father —

Full of grace and truth.

And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

For the law was given by Moses,

But grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

No man hath seen God at any time:

The only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

SELECTIONS FROM THE SCRIPTURES

No. 330

Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised

In the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.

Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth,

Is Mount Zion, on the sides of the north the city of the great King.

God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

We have thought of thy loving-kindness O God, in the midst of thy temple.

According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth:

Thy right hand is full of righteousness.

Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.

Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.

Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces;

That ye may tell it to the generation following.

For this God is our God for ever and ever:

He will be our guide even unto death.

No. 331

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written by the prophet,

And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

No. 332

And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

No. 333

And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

And there were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar,

And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.

And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

And ye are witnesses of these things.

No. 334

In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulcher.

And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

And go quickly and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

And they departed quickly from the sepulcher with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid; go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

SELECTIONS FROM THE SCRIPTURES

No. 335

After these things the LORD appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way.

And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

No. 336

Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,

And for his wonderful works to the children of men,

For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron.

Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the Most High;

Therefore he brought down their heart with labor; they fell down, and there was none to help.

Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

He brought them out of darkness, and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The LORD is thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

No. 337

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea.

Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacle, of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Come, behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth;

He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

SELECTIONS FROM THE SCRIPTURES

No. 338

Nevertheless, I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you;

But if I depart, I will send him unto you.

And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

Of sin, because they believe not on me;

Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

All things that the Father hath are mine; therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

No. 339

A certain man had two sons:

And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

And he would fain have filled himself with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

And he arose, and came to his father.

But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand and shoes on his feet:

And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

No. 340

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the LORD and in the power of his might.

Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints.

SELECTIONS FROM THE SCRIPTURES

No. 341

The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul:

The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart:

The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever:

The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold:

Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned:

And in keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can understand his errors?

Cleanse thou me from secret faults.

No. 342

Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments; and his commandments are not grievous.

For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

No. 343

I love the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.

Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

Then called I upon the name of the Lord; O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful.

The Lord preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me. Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.

For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.

No. 344

Praise ye the LORD: for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely.

The Lord doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

Great is our LORD, and of great power: his understanding is infinite.

The Lord lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground. Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God.

SELECTIONS FROM THE SCRIPTURES

Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth,
who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

No. 345

Be not wise in thine own eyes:

Fear the LORD, and depart from evil.
Honor the Lord with thy substance,
And with the first fruits of all thine increase:

So shall thy barns be filled with plenty,
And thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord;

Neither be weary of his correction:

For whom the Lord loveth he correct-
eth;

Even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

Happy is the man that findeth wisdom,
And the man that getteth understanding.

For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver,

And the gain thereof than fine gold.
She is more precious than rubies:

And all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

Length of days is in her right hand;
And in her left hand riches and honor.

Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace.

She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.

The heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament sheweth his handiwork.

Day unto day uttereth speech.

And night unto night sheweth knowledge.

There is no speech nor language,

Where their voice is not heard.

Their line is gone out through all the earth.

And their words to the end of the world.
In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun.

Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,

And rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

His going forth is from the end of the heaven,

And his circuit unto the ends of it:
And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

No. 346

If ye love me, keep my commandments.
And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him:
but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

Yet a little while, and the world
seeth me no more; but ye see me:
because I live, ye shall live also.

At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me; and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

No. 347

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge:

But fools despise wisdom and instruction.

My son, hear the instruction of thy father,

And forsake not the law of thy mother:
For they shall be an ornament of grace
unto thy head,

And chains about thy neck.

My son, forget not my law:
But let thine heart keep my commandments:

For length of days, and long life,
And peace, shall they add to thee,

Let not mercy and truth forsake thee:
Bind them about thy neck;

Write them upon the table of thine
heart:

So shalt thou find favor and good understanding

In the sight of God and man.

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart;
And lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him,
And he shall direct thy paths.

SELECTIONS FROM THE SCRIPTURES

No. 348

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of man:

And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

No. 349

Honor the LORD with thy substance and with the first fruits of all thine increase.

Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.

Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him.

Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.

He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth unto the LORD.

For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace, and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

No. 350

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God.

Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

And I saw no temple therein: for the LORD God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun;

For the Lord God giveth them light; and they shall reign for ever and ever.

Blessed are they that do his commandments,

That they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace and pursue it.

The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

L. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written by the prophet,

S. And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

L. Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

S. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

L. When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

S. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

Prayer. (Closing with the LORD's Prayer.)

L. The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

S. Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

L. For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall rise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

ALL. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

Song. (Hymn No. 266, From Greenlands Icy Mountains.)

Responsive Reading.

L. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest; behold I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

S. But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

L. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

S. And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow into it.

L. And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths.

S. The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fating together; and a little child shall lead them.

L. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

S. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

L. Serve the LORD with gladness; come before his presence with singing.

S. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise.

Song. (No. 150. The Fight Is On.)

Memory Selection. Repeated by the School in Unison—(School Standing.)

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.

And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things.

Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

Song. (No. 314. The Victory May Depend on You.)

Responsive Reading.

L. Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

S. They that tarry long at the wine: they that go to seek mixed wine.

ALL. Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his color in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder.

L. Be not drunk with wine. Be not among wine-bibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh.

S. For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

ALL. Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

L. None of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

S. Let us not judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

L. The kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

S. He that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

L. Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

S. For meat destroy not the work of God. It is good neither to eat flesh nor to drink wine, nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.
